

never a question

Jessica Baio

[Verse 1]

I hate when I first wake up
How I look with no makeup
But you don't
I hate how I overthink
And worry about everything
But you don't
You don't (You don't)

[Pre-Chorus]

You're the commodity
That I want all over me
And I always hated Math
But I love your geometry (Geometry)
And I know I've never been
One to let someone in
But I'm not myself around you

[Chorus]

You disarm me
I'm not used to letting go of my boundaries
But when I feel your hands on my body
I can't feel the trauma (Trauma)
All my walls cave in
And leave me defenseless
I'm giving up the war and my weapons
Take every inch of me for forever
I surrender (I surrender)
Always wanted to feel accepted
Now I know that it's never a question with you

[Verse 2]

I don't like my nose sometimes
I wish I loved my chest size
Like you do, hmm-mm
I don't have the words to say
When I'm really not okay
But you do (But you do)

[Pre-Chorus]

You're the commodity
That I want all over me
And I always hated Math
But I love your geometry (Geometry)
And I know I've never been
One to let someone in
But I'm not myself around you

[Chorus]

You disarm me (Ooh-ooh)
I'm not used to letting go of my boundaries (Boundaries)
But when I feel your hands on my body
I can't feel the trauma (Trauma)
All my walls cave in
And leave me defenseless
I'm giving up the war and my weapons
Take every inch of me for forever

I surrender (I surrender)
Always wanted to feel accepted
Now I know that it's never a question with you
[Post-Chorus]
Woah, woah, woah
Know that it's never a question with you
Woah, woah, woah
Know that it's never a question

[Outro]
You disarm me
I'm not used to letting go of my boundaries
But when I feel your hands on my body
I can't feel the trauma
Always wanted to feel accepted
Now I know that it's never a question
