

sharp edges

Jessica Baio

[Verse 1]

Where were you last night?
Never mind, I don't wanna know
'Cause we'll fight and you'll lie
Then I'll cry and you pull me close
You know I don't love me just enough
Stab me with the pain and kiss it numb
I don't even know who I've become, hmm

[Pre-Chorus]

You tear me apart but I never leave
Got a million scars but they're never that deep

[Chorus]

This love has sharp edges
Ripping out my heart 'til I'm bleeding out
Yeah, it's a dark heaven
Laying in your arms 'til they let me down
I'll let you kill me slowly 'cause I can't let go
This love has sharp edges
But not sharp enough to cut you off

[Verse 2]

This tug of war, keeping scores
Hating been, something you adore
Underscores, I slam the doors
A shatter vase of roses on the floor
'Cause I'm getting used to it
How could I get used to this? Ooh
Yeah, I think I'm losing it
But I don't know how to quit

[Chorus]

This love has sharp edges
Ripping out my heart 'til I'm bleeding out
Yeah, it's a dark heaven
Laying in your arms 'til they let me down
I'll let you kill me slowly 'cause I can't let go
This love has sharp edges
But not sharp enough to cut you off

[Outro]

To cut you off
Not sharp enough
Sharp edges
Not sharp enough to cut you off
