

Of Your Way

Jessica Harp

It's a rainy day
And I do love the way
It falls from so high in the sky
Reminds me so true
Of how I fell for you

Thunder imitates your stance
Lightening gives us half a chance
But even on a rainy day
Nothing represents us better
Not even the weather
Than the climate of your way

Bring the greatest ever storm
Drop temperatures below the norm
No possible earthly catastrophe
Could take you away from me

It's a sunny day
And I do adore the way
It shines from so high in the sky
Reminds me so true
Of how I shine around you

Clouds imitate your stance
Winds give us half a chance
But even on sunny day
Nothing represents us better
Not even the weather
