

Greater Heights

Jessica Lea Mayfield

I don't wanna let you down
If you fall I will fall behind you
And if I climb to greater heights
I will throw a ladder down for you

It's a shame that you ask me to choose between him and you
Cause baby you know the answer
Oh it's lonely here without you
Oh it's lonely here without

Honey will you hold my hand
I'll let you show me where to go
And I'm afraid to understand
Why I have so much faith in you, love

And then you go and ask me to choose between him and you
But baby you know the answer oh it's lonely here without you
Oh it's lonely here without you
Oh it's lonely here without
