

I Can't Lie to You, Love

Jessica Lea Mayfield

now my love is not around cause i did something i swore i'd never do then i made a lie if i could've kept it it would've saved my life but i can't lie to you, love and i can't lift my head up and i can't sleep knowing you want nothing to do with me you deserve some time staring at the wall, he said you deserve to cry

i deserve to be dead

is it over? you got to let me know so i don't die from this, tell me is it so you don't love me like you said you did before and you don't want me to love you anymore

and i can't sleep
