

I Miss You

Jessica Lea Mayfield

There's nothing new for me
Here across the (?)
As we say our long goodbye
You can stand there and watch me cry

And I miss you
More than you would know,
And I miss you
More than you would know,
And I miss you
More than you would know,
And I miss you
More than you would know,

The only thing new for me is you
And I just wish I knew if you felt the way I do
So I'll kill myself over this game
I love you but can you say the same?

And I miss you
More than you would know,
And I miss you
More than you would know,
And I miss you
More than you would know,
And I miss you
More than you would know.
