

Soaked Through

Jessica Lea Mayfield

I tried to leave
He wouldn't let me out
He shook me and he cried and he said 'please stay'
So I stayed a little longer

My heart wants all the bad things
I used to let it have
My lonely hell is waiting for me
I'm always wrapped up in it
Whatever it might be
I'm soaked through and I'm disintegrating

I'm not gonna hurt you
Any more, I promise
I know I've said it before
And it's only been three days
But can't you tell, I'm different now

My heart wants all the bad things
I used to let it have
My lonely hell is waiting for me
I'm always wrapped up in it
Whatever it might be
I'm soaked through and I'm disintegrating

My heart wants all the bad things
I used to let it have
My lonely hell is waiting for me
