

Somewhere in Your Heart

Jessica Lea Mayfield

My mind is weak and twisted
Alone with my fantasy
I'll end this love I manifested
This dream of you and me

I know your love spotlight
Will never shine on me
I'm afraid to spend forever in the dark
Don't you wanna wake up
With somebody beside ya
There'll never be a home for me
Somewhere in your heart

My heart is through and begs my hands to do
What I shouldn't do
I'd rather die young and be forgotten
Than live to grow old loving you

I know your love spotlight
Will never shine on me
I'm afraid to spend forever in the dark
Don't you wanna wake up
With somebody beside ya
There'll never be a home for me
Somewhere in your heart

There'll never be a home for me
Somewhere in your heart
