

Tell Me

Jessica Lea Mayfield

tell me why i should not follow you tell me why it's stupid words we've thought when we were young i shout it now as somebody's anthem crowds of people we don't relate to tell me if i should not see a friend in you great expectations on the line what would you've wanted me to do

tell me
tell me

my mistakes are dues i pay for life once my word was good here failure is proof that i'm not brave you trusted that i would be on your side now i'm someone you don't relate to

great expectations on the line

tell me
tell me

tell me
