

Chasing Ghosts

Jessica Lowndes

Running after ghosts again
Hoping you'll get rid of them
But I'm not sure you ever will
I'm not sure you ever can

Tryout
Rivers run hollow
I give up cause I can't follow
Push me away from the ghosts that you're chasing
Ah ah ghosts that you're chasing
Tryout
While you were sleeping
I can't live always competing
Push me away from the ghosts that you're chasing
Ah ah, ah ah

I keep waiting for a sign
Maybe things will change with time
But I'm not sure they ever will
I don't think you'll even try

Tryout
Rivers run hollow
I give up cause I can't follow
Push me away from the ghosts that you're chasing
Ah ah ghosts that you're chasing
Tryout
While you were sleeping
I can't live always competing
Push me away from the ghosts that you're chasing
Ah ah, ah ah

Now I'm fading out
I keep thinking I can be the one to save you
I keep thinking maybe somehow I could change you
But we can't go back, no we can't go back
Down, we're breaking down
I keep thinking you were someone I could fight for
But I'm realizing that it isn't my war
But we can't go back to the ghosts that you're chasing

Ghosts
Will haunt you all day long

Tryout
Rivers run hollow
I give up cause I can't follow
Push me away from the ghosts that you're chasing
Ah ah ghosts that you're chasing
Tryout
While you were sleeping
I can't live always competing
Push me away from the ghosts that you're chasing
Ah ah, ah ah

Now I'm fading out
I keep thinking I can be the one to save you

I keep thinking maybe somehow I could change you
But we can't go back, no we can't go back
Down, we're breaking down
I keep thinking you were someone I could fight for
But I'm realizing that it isn't my war
But we can't go back to the ghosts that you're chasing
