

Can't Hold Me Back

Jessica Reedy

My career
My relationships
My mental state wasn't so clear
Losing everything that I would put my efforts near
Had me wondering to myself was something wrong with me
When I knew my heart was sincere
So I
I started thinking to myself
And I
Concluded there was something else
Fighting against me
And trying to stop me
There's only one I know who doesn't like me

Satan you tried to spread your lies
Thought your lies would stop my rise
But your lies couldn't hold me back
You through a lot of dirt
Hoping that would stop my work
But your dirt couldn't hold me back
You used my friends and family
To be my enemy
But not even that could hold me back
Bring the best you have
Cause my daddy has my back
And you can't hold us back

My daddy told me
That you seek to steal, kill, deceive, destroy me
Daily
He even told me
That you prey on the sick, weak and the hurting
Without them knowing
Using them to do your work

Killing them in return
You're slowly walking them into the dark
I'm about sick of it
I've had about enough of it
In the name of Jesus, I'm ending it

Satan you tried to spread your lies
Thought your lies would stop my rise
But your lies couldn't hold me back
You through a lot of dirt
Hoping that would stop my work
But your dirt couldn't hold me back
You used my friends and family
To be my enemy
But not even that could hold me back
Bring the best you have
Cause my daddy has my back
And you can't hold us back

I plead the blood of Jesus [x8]

Satan you tried to spread your lies

Thought your lies would stop my rise
But your lies couldn't hold me back
You through a lot of dirt
Hoping that would stop my work
But your dirt couldn't hold me back
You used my friends and family
To be my enemy
But not even that could hold me back
Bring the best you have
Cause my daddy has my back
And you can't hold us back

I plead the blood of Jesus [x8]