

Breadcrumbs

Jessica Simpson

Breadcrumbs of black obsidian
Connect me to the crown
Spirits surround me
While demons damn me down

I'm standing on the rock
The rock of my salvation
I found the freedom on my own

Remember who you are
Remember who you are
Forget who they told you to be
Remember who you are
Remember who you are
Forget who they told you to be

Hellfire and holy water
Baptized in the stream
Swing low, sweet chariot
On a midnight summer's dream

Standing on the rock
The rock of my salvation
I found the freedom on my own

Remember who you are
Remember who you are
Forget who they told you to be
Remember who you are
Remember who you are
Forget who they told you to be

As I lay me down to sleep
I pray my heart is keepin' me awake for you
Paint me in that starry night
I'll be watching from my throne upon the moon

Remember who you are
Remember who you are
Forget who they told you to be
Remember who you are
Remember who you are
Forget who they told you to be

Remember who you are
Remember who you are
Forget who they told you
Forget who they told you
Remember who you are
Remember who you are
Forget who they told you
Forget who they told you
