

Leave

Jessica Simpson

What we had was magic
Now you've made it tragic
Giving her what you gave to me
Now the well that you drank from empty

Your weakness made me lonely
Unholy matrimony
Did you do to her what you did to me
Was she on her knees
Oh oh oh
She's everything but me

Oh I
I want you to leave
I don't even wanna breathe the air you breathe
Oh I
I'd rather die
Then let you be inside me with her on your mind
I am stronger on my own
So hold on
I'm letting you go

How'd this even happen
I can just imagine
I wanna know then again I don't
She get you off dressing up in my clothes
Don't say you love me
Don't even try to touch me
If you were me you'd fall to pieces
I make heartbreak look damn easy
Oh oh oh
We're not doing this again

Oh I
I want you to leave
I don't even wanna breathe the air you breathe
Oh I
I'd rather die
Then let you be inside me with her on your mind
I am stronger on my own
So hold on
I'm letting you go

Oh I
I want you to leave
I don't even wanna breathe the air you breathe
Oh I
I'd rather die
Then let you be inside me with her on your mind
I am stronger on my own
So hold on
I'm letting you go
