

Lucky

Jessie Farrell

I'm walking down this empty hall of photographs
I push my nose up to the ones I love
The long walk home to where I rest my weary head
I feel as if I'm happy in my cause

Funny me what was I thinking
Life is about to start
Cause I am

Lucky to be here
Yes I am lucky to care
Yes I am lucky to listen
And I am what I am
And your never gonna change me
I am what I am I am
But I do what I can
Oh yeah I do what I can

I rest my head between dissonance and harmony
I feel as if I've changed but stayed the same
The long walk home to where I rest my weary head
I feel as if I'm happy in my game

Funny me what was I thinking
Life is about to start
Cause I am

Lucky to be here
Yes I am lucky to care
Yes I am lucky to listen
And I am what I am
And your never gonna change me
I am what I am I am

And if I choose to lose my head after all those foolish things that you said
I would never make it on my on my own

Cause I am lucky to be here
Yes I am lucky to care
Yes I am lucky to listen
Yes I am lucky to care

I'm lucky
I'm lucky to care
I'm lucky I'm lucky to care
I'm lucky I'm lucky to care
I'm lucky baby
I'm lucky to care
