

COMPLICATED

Jessie J

2010 was the year I didn't know what I was doing
I sang so loud, insecure but nobody knew it
2012 I broke up with my beautiful girlfriend
With the press in my face, called it a phase, babe, I'm sorry

2014 Katy told me that they all hate me
That I do too much, bang bang, can't sit at the table
With the label

But, ooh, that's life for ya
A roller-coaster not everyone rides with ya
Ooh, ooh, and I'm fine with that
It's been a decade

Of being complicated, I'm not complaining
It's underrated, I celebrate it
I've had my moments, ups and lowest
I'm OK with
Being complicated
Being complicated

2015 got told that I couldn't have children
Took 2016 just for me 'cause I needed some grieving
2017 went by 'cause I wanted
2018 to be mine and be honest
Met a Magic Mike, will that ever be forgotten?
'Cause everything they write
That's the headline and the topic

But, ooh, that's life for ya
A roller-coaster not everyone rides with ya
Ooh, ooh, and I'm fine with that
It's been a decade

Of being complicated, I'm not complaining
It's underrated, I celebrate it
I've had my moments, ups and lowest
I'm OK with
Being complicated
Being complicated

I know I mess up sometimes
But, no, that doesn't define
Who I wanna be
Who I'm gonna be
I know I mess up sometimes
But, no, that doesn't define
Who I wanna be
Who

I'm so complicated, I'm not complaining
It's underrated, I celebrate it
I've had my moments, ups and lowest
I'm OK with
Being complicated
Being complicated
