

No Secrets

Jessie J

No, it won't change
It will always be the same
Keep driving me insane
Oh, oh

I lost my baby
But the show must go on, right?
No if, and's or maybe
Can I cry for just one night?
I'm standing here naked
But I chose the spotlight
Sometimes I hate it
Sometimes it feels nice

Am I addicted to the honey? (Honey)
They find me pretty when it's ugly (Ugly)
They either hate me or they love me
So scary being honest (Yeah)
Tell 'em all, tell 'em nothing (Nothing)
Keep it real or keep it funny (Funny)
It ain't for gossip or for money
But I be speaking up for something

Why put it on the internet?
Whole life is online
No secrets
How I always get so intimate?
Keep speaking my mind
No secrets
Back and forth, I'm like, ".... it, who cares?"
Back and forth, I'm like, "I do, I share"
Whole life is online

In my house, hiding
Trying protect my love life
They don't see me when I'm crying
Your back and forth out the door, like it's alright
I wanna shout it from the rooftops
I'm his girl, look what I got
People slide in and take shots
Damn, it's a lot (Yeah)

Am I addicted to the honey (Honey)
