

High Road

Jessie Murph

I can tell that you're mad
And I ain't half surprised about that
Since the day that we met
It's always who cuts first and never who bleeds last

Rumors always turn into yelling and fighting
And once it's in your mind, only one way you're driving
I know, and I know

I'ma take the high road, baby, get stoned
Have a little too much of something terrible
I'ma let you cool down while I walk out
You ain't messing me up like the times before
I don't need a ticket to your shit show
Knock yourself out and hit a new low
Well, I'ma take the high road, take the high road, take the high road

You don't wanna talk about it
Boy, that's no surprise
You come home smelling like liquor like every other night
If I catch you with her, you gon' catch me with him
You think I don't hear about it, you better think again

You know that rumors always turn into yellin' and fightin'
And once it's in my mind, only one way I'm drivin', you know
And I know

I'ma take the high road, baby, get stoned
Have a little too much of something terrible
I'ma let you cool down while I walk out
You ain't messing me up like the times before
I don't need a ticket to your shit show
Knock yourself out and hit a new low
I'ma take the high road, take the high road, take the high road
Road

Yeah, I'ma take the high road, baby, get stoned
Have a little too much of something terrible
I'ma let you cool down while I walk out
You ain't messing me up like the times before
And I don't need a ticket to your shit show
Knock yourself out and hit a new low
I'ma take the high road, take the high road, take the high road
Yeah, I'ma take the high road, take the high road, take the high road
