

CUDN'T B ME

Jessie Reyez

Yuh, yuh, yuh
Cudn't be, cudn't be, cudn't be

I heard that men
Men never choose
The one that they really love is the one that they lose
She ends up being the one they daydream about
In a suburban house
With a woman he settled for
She was better for him I guess
God bless
But it cudn't b me
Yeah

She's got her face beat
And she's always home
And she put to sleep every dream of her own
And she lets you go cheat
Long as you come home
From searching the streets for someone like the one you let go

Cudn't b me, baby
Cudn't b, cudn't b, cudn't b
Like the one you let go
Cudn't b me, baby
Cudn't b, cudn't b, cudn't b

I heard that girls
Girls never learn
Changed everything 'bout myself hoping I'd get a turn
Just to be the one he'd daydream about
In a two bedroom house
With a wife he don't even love
She was easier I guess
God bless
But it cudn't b me, oh

She's got her face beat
And she's always home
And she put to sleep every dream of her own
And she lets you go cheat
Long as you come home
From searching the streets for someone like the one you let go

Cudn't b me, baby
Cudn't b, cudn't b, cudn't b
The one you let go
Cudn't b me, baby
Cudn't be me

Babe, I'm sorry to hear that, babe
That's fucking shit
I'm sorry, but listen, Jessie
You can't beat yourself up too much about this stuff
Like, you've got to go with your heart and your instincts
And you'll learn next time when you get the same feelings
To not go there, ya know?

So it's a good thing you did it, it's all part of the growth
Um, I'm proud of you for being brave and courageous
And doing it, and stepping into it and finding out what's right and what's wrong, um, for you
Sounds like he is a twat, and he will regret this for as long as he lives, I promise you babe
But he's not worth your breath, it sounds like
Um, I'm in Mexico, babe, I just landed
Um, wish you were here, miss you
And I'm sending you a big hug
Love, love, love, love you
