

Automatic

Jessie Ware

Do you know what you've got?
You've got a perfect woman
She treats you right
Keeps you satisfied
It's automatic

Always said I'm the one that got his heart beating
And he already know that he's never gonna leave it
He's the type of guy that lets me shine
I'll always be flying next to my man
It's clear he always understood
He'll never find a woman this good
And when we are alone, it's glorious, he'll never let it go
He says, "Anywhere you wanna be
What you wanna do, darling, I don't mind
Just wanna hold you in my arms tonight" (Ahh)

My baby's so good to me
Trust me, that love is automatic
'Cause he loves what he sees
No, he ain't ever problematic
Knows where he's supposed to be
Coming back home to keep me satisfied
I got an automatic, automatic oh

Dancing through circles of time
He lets me lead
He's Mr. Right
And when I'm moving way too fast
He'll let me know to take a breath
So I take it slow
My baby knows
It's clear he always understood
"I'll never find a woman this good"
And when we are alone, it's glorious, he'll never let it go
He says, "Anywhere you wanna be
What you wanna do, darling, I don't mind
Just wanna hold you in my arms tonight" (Ahh)

My baby's so good to me
Trust me, that love is automatic
'Cause he loves what he sees
No, he ain't ever problematic
Knows where he's supposed to be
Coming back home to keep me satisfied
I got an automatic, automatic oh!

Automatic, automatic oh
That boy is automatic, automatic oh
Automatic, automatic oh
Automatic, automatic oh
That boy is automatic, automatic oh
Automatic, automatic oh
