Would you rather be lonely?
Would you
Would you rather be lonely?

Look what I've done to us baby
Gone and burned it up from inside
Well, They might say I'm crazy
But they don't know

I don't care what they say if I go on repeating myself

Would you rather be lonely?
Would you rather be lonely?
Would you rather be lonely?
Would you rather be alone

I'm so obsessive myself
I set the whole thing on fire
No, I won't let you go
So much better when I have you close
Acting out has got me somewhere else
And I'm sure I've made up my mind
Baby not so fast get in touch when you're home the next time

I don't care what they say if I go repeating myself

Would you rather be lonely?
Would you rather be lonely?
Would you rather be lonely?
Would you rather be alone

Would you rather be lonely?
Would you rather be lonely?
Would you rather be lonely?
Would you rather be alone

Would you rather be lonely?
Would you rather be lonely?
Would you rather be lonely?
Would you rather be alone
