

Over And Over

Jessy Lanza

Don't go stay with me yeah
You know what I want
I can't deal without your love
And I really really tried
When you're far away
Seems so sweet to settle down
When I'm right beside you, oh
Well I can't seem to help myself

It plays oh oh over again
Over and over
Oh oh over again
Over and over

Would you believe it?
What'd you say to me?
Have a change of heart
Can't stop thinking bout you
When I leave I don't know
I don't know myself

My my I'm hard to please, yeah
Give me what I want
Making love so easily baby with you, you, you
Wipe my tears away cause I can't forget you now
Love comes back to find me
Baby there's nowhere to go
There's nowhere to go

Oh oh over again
Over and over
Oh oh over again
Over and over

Couldn't believe it
What'd you say to me?
You had a change of heart
Love comes back to find you, oh
And it's hard to believe I don't know myself

I do it over and again
I play it over and again
I do it I do it over and again
I play it over and again
I play it over and again
I play it (I do it over and again)
I do it I do it over and again
I do it do it do it over and again
Oh oh over again (repeats)
I do it over and again (repeats)
