

December

Jesu

Age comes like the night in winter
Just after we leave December
Days as bitter as they are short
Wrapped up inside our paper fort

We are only what we see
If that's true then we'll never be Come and go without a purpose
Will spring time bring the usual rebirth?