Your nanny was a TV screen
Your mommy wasn't there
Daddy worked too hard all day
He also never cared
Now you've grown up and realised
Your childhood wasn't real
. . . . . . .
You wanna start to kill
Now you want revenge
You got a plan
Now you take control
And make them pay
Inside your head's a battlefield
Chaotic state of mind
And as you leave your past behind
You slowly start to cry
bang, bang let's kill,
just you won again
Now you want revenge
You got a plan
Now you take control
And make them pay
Now you want revenge
You got a plan
Now you take control
And make them pay
bang, bang , bang , bang let's kill
bang, bang , bang , bang let's kill (2x)
Now you want revenge
You got a plan
Now you take control
And make them pay
Now you want revenge
You got a plan
Now you take control
And make them pay
Bang, bang, bang, bang
Bang, bang, bang, bang
Bang, bang, bang, bang

Bang, bang, bang, bang
