Tonight

Jesus On Extasy

I tried to be somebody else
But I'm just myself
I tried to be a superstar
I failed
I'm not the ideal that you see
I'm ordinary guy
I'm not the one you think
I'm someone else

Come and hold me tight
We'll have it all tonight
I would kill for your love
Come and hold me tight
And We'll have it all tonight
I would kill for your love

I thought if I would just pretend
Those lies on came true
Denied who I really am
I realize that I'm losing touch
With this fucking so cold world
I had to find my way back home, to you

Come and hold me tight
We'll have it all tonight
I would kill for your love
Come and hold me tight
We'll have it all tonight
I would kill for your love
```
