

Honey

Jetta

Don't leave me outside, honey
Don't let me cast my soul away
Like I did, oh
Don't keep me tied down honey
Don't let me cast my soul away
Like I did, ooh

'Cause I wanna be free, but I wanna be loved
Oh, honey not too much, but just enough to feel good
Said I wanna be free, but I wanna be loved
Oh, honey not too much, but just enough to feel good

It's like rain falling inside my heart
Rain falling every time I think of you, my honey
When I think of you, my heart breaks

Don't leave me outside, honey
Don't let me cast my soul away
Like I did, ooh

'Cause I wanna be free, but I wanna be loved
Oh, honey not too much, but just enough to feel good
Said I wanna be free, but I wanna be loved
Oh, honey not too much, but just enough to feel good

It's like rain falling inside my heart
Rain falling every time I think of you, my honey
When I think of you, my heart breaks
It's like rain falling inside my heart
Rain falling every time I think of you, my honey
When I think of you, my heart breaks

Like fire in the rain, in my mind disarray
My heart wash it off, hope it don't break
It's like rain, rain, oh rain, every time
(I think of you) of you
Of you, yeah

It's like rain falling inside my heart
Rain falling every time I think of you, my honey
When I think of you, my heart breaks
