

Dancing Slow

Jewel

Another cracked black top, winding road
The more I see the less I know
Everything seems to be tearing me apart

One minute I'm up and the next I'm down
You got me so turned around
Got me running through the dark

I wanna take it back to how we used to be
When I ran to you and you ran to me
With nothing in between
You and me

Put your arms in mine, turn the lights down low
You and I in this place only we know
Look in my eyes, let the world fly by
While we keep dancing slow
Oh oh oh oh
We keep dancing slow
Oh oh

Moving pictures, speeding cars
Strange strangers chasing shooting stars
Running too fast nowhere to go

All of the rust and the broken bells
The angry rose and the steeples fell
The altar of our love will still be there

If we take it back to how we used to be
When I ran to you and you ran to me
With nothing in between
You and me

Put your hand in mine, turn the lights down low
You and I in this place only we know
Look in my eyes, let the world fly by
While we keep dancing slow (dancing slow)
Oh oh
While we keep dancing slow (dancing slow)
Oh oh

If we take it back to how we used to be
When I ran to you and you ran to me
With nothing in between
You and me

Put your arms in mine, turn the lights down low
You and I in this place only we know
Look in my eyes, let the world fly by
While we keep dancing slow
Oh oh
While we keep dancing slow
Oh oh
While we keep dancing slow
Oh oh
While we keep dancing slow

Oh oh
