Jeymes Samuel

Veer toward me
Drift upon a quiet sea
Tears anoint me
Silence is a part of me
Take it slow

I'm on the edge
Don't push, go slow
I stay adrift
Don't rush, go slow
Heaven is elemental
Our souls, transcendental
I'm on the edge
Don't push, go slow
I stay adrift
Don't rush, go slow
Heaven is elevated
Our souls, levitated

Veer toward me
Close your eyes and gravitate
Your hair anoints me
Silence is the sound we make
And if I whisper in your ear
Words will fall apart
Only sound we yearn to hear
Is our heartbeat
Take it slow

I'm on the edge
Don't push, go slow
I stay adrift
Don't rush, go slow
Heaven is elemental
Our souls, transcendental
I'm on the edge
Don't push, go slow
I stay adrift
Don't rush, go slow
Heaven is elevated
Our souls, levitated

You and I are intertwined
Can it be a state of mind?
Nothing ever disappears
Is it all we long to hear?
Sanity is lost at sea
You will stay adrift with me
I'm your light within the dark
Follow my heartbeat
It beats slow

I'm on the edge
Don't push, go slow
I stay adrift
Don't rush, go slow
Heaven is elemental

Our souls, transcendental
I 'm on the edge
Don't push, go slow
I stay adrift
Don't rush, go slow
Heaven is elevated
Our souls, levitated
