

2 Much

Jez Dior

I think I love you too much
You really pushed me to the drugs
Will I ever be enough
I think I love you too much

Highschool sweetheart with a highschool heartthrob
We would fuck in your car when we heard our song
Senior year skip class and smoke all march long
Sneak up in the bar we could take Irish car bombs
Sour candy from your mouth to mine
Call of duty zombies in your bed all the time
Where did we go wrong, how did I get here
I was picking up pills while you were going to cheer
I was mixin up lean while you were stuck in mirror
I was chuggin Jack Daniels said I only had a beer
So it all fell apart I really wish I had you here
You know all along losing you was my biggest fucking fear

I think I love you too much
You really pushed me to the drugs
Will I ever be enough
I think I love you too much I think I love you too much

I was unconscious last night I hope I get there again
I'm really sorry if I took too much and scared all my friends
But hey at least I came out and you saw me right?
Most nights I like to hide behind the bottle close the blinds
Close my eyes pretend I'm blind, crush a pill and snort some lines
Stumble round my neighborhood to see what I can find
And would you kiss me? can we be some degenerates with benefits
And take some downers to slow down before we get ahead of it
I hope so... I wrote you something cute today
It said if I die I hope you visit my grave
I thought we'd go down like Bonnie and Clyde
We're looking more like Sid and Nancy everyday we're alive

I think I love you too much
You really pushed me to the drugs
Will I ever be enough
I think I love you too much
I think I love you too much
You really pushed me to the drugs
Will I ever be enough
I think I love you too much
