

Bleach

Jez Dior

Bleach bleach bleach, why why why
Bleach bleach bleach, why why why
It pulls too fast, makes me so strong
And If it's not here, I just wanna go home
It's almost like bleach I've been cleaned
Walked away and then I watched you leave

Lie to me so I feel the fake in the truth
Inside of me I'm trying to believe it was you
But binding me is memories and what they do
But you won't ever talk to me
It really don't mean much to you
You cut me off, you put me down
You fuck me up, you love me now
You get me back, you throw me out
You play the game, you know me now
So what the fuck you owe me now
No front cover shit cause I'm the poster child
And I swear it baby, swear that's it's okay to me
Can't be with you then, you should probably pray for me
The days I came to see you I needed you to just be you
I see it, I smelt him on you couldn't wait til I lay you out

Like bleach on my skin
You reach and I'm in
I fuck so deep down
Looks like the end
The end of everything that I ever knew
Can't decide if I'm blaming you

I know that you know me
Hope that you hold me
Cause we know it feels so right
The day that I told you, if I told you
You know I'd have to kill you right?
It's like bleach on my skin
Bleach on my skin, bleach on my skin
Feels like bleach on my skin
Will this bleach clean our sins?

Why'd you leave like it was nothin uhn
Yeah this funny is screaming when we were uhn
So gentle man, I wouldn't dare tell'em
How you got low when it was bare when
You were there touchin
Ooh I think I said it, think I meant it
How you gon ask to keep it lowkey
If found get no credit hah
Think it all out in the open
See you were there and you were right and you were soakin
It was great for me
But now it's hate for me, it's surely it's the love for him
The same one that you done told me was your best friend
See how'd I trust a ho, you didn't love me no
You got a heart on his name, its dialed in your phone
If each of us win
You teach a lesson

You tell your dumb lies
You preach and pretend
Pretend everything like its brand new
Fuck that girl I'm blaming you

I know that you know me
Hope that you hold me
Cause we know it feels so right
The day that I told you, if I told you
You know I'd have to kill you right?
It's like bleach on my skin
Bleach on my skin, bleach on my skin
Feels like bleach on my skin
Will this bleach clean our sins?

We were before love
Baby it's your love
How'd you end up drowning me?
I'm stuck in this corner
And I know they warned us
That you'd burn me just like bleach
Like bleach on my skin
It's like bleach on my skin
Bleach on my skin
It's like bleach on my skin
It's like bleach on my skin
Bleach on my skin
It's like bleach on my skin
Why why why
Bleach bleach bleach, why why why
It pulls too fast makes me so strong
And If it's not here I just wanna go home
It's almost like bleach I've been cleaned
Walked away and then I watched you leave
