

Dark Star

Jez Dior

I've looked a long time to find you
I drifted through the universe, just to lay beside you
Anywhere you want me to take you, I'll go (yeah)
But there's things about me, that you just don't know

If I told you where I've been, would you still call me baby?
And If I told you everything, would you call me crazy?
Cause baby I'm a dark star, dark star, oh
Cause baby I'm a dark star, dark star, oh

If this is the time for honesty here
Let's be honest and weird
I'm fondest of all the things I should beware of You're not wearing mascara
So pretty to me, the one I'll take care of
With no problems either, it's starting to scare us
I'm the problem child, what bothers me gonna all come out
Out of the dark, all of the lights on
Writing on the walls, all we fucking do is write songs
All I do is write about you in my little black book, until the pages gone
Nothing else to write on
But there's everything to fight on
Screaming at the same shoulder you gonna cry on
How does that make sense?
You tell me when to climb this fence
You tell me when this shit end
Cause I can't let go, I'm in love with my friend
It's hard when you really don't get where I've been
Baby I'm ashamed but the world made me sin
I'm a fucking artist, I ain't like the rest
Asleep when you're up and I live when you rest
And these stains on my glass, a kiss on your chest
I'll be your last, I'm loving the mess
They want us to crash, I hardly confess
That was the past, your lips on my neck
Moving so fast, I feel your sweat
I feel you're ready, I'm coming I'm ready
Just look?, I'll be there if you let me
Your eyes locked in mine, we found who we are
You found love and I found my star

If I told you where I've been, would you still call me baby?
And If I told you everything, would you call me crazy?
Cause baby I'm a dark star, dark star, oh
Cause baby I'm a dark star, dark star, oh

I really can't save me myself, I'm really just calling for help
I'm really just calling to hear that old voice
For that pain that I dealt, I'm ashamed of myself
I'm away, too far away
I went too far today, and now I'm in the rain
I'm away from the shit that you told me to do
Close to the shit that you scold me for doing
They're picking it up and they're throwing it to me
They knowing I'm no good at turning them down
Turning it up man, I'm fucking around
Fucking this up and I'm blaming the town

You grab the torch and we'll burn this bitch down
I said burn this bitch down
Spraying the walls, you paint their hearts
I'll get the x's and o's and we'll start
It's turning me on, we're taking this down
Look at the fire, baby lay down
We'll look at the clouds, silence is loud
Touching my body, I feel it for now
Tell me you're ready to leave this world with me
We're locking our hands in the flames
And the city is getting so hot, girl, I feel them all coming up
That's just my fingers, you're feeling them running up
You're biting my lip, you're scratching my back
Everyone see's that we're loving like that
I'm seeing my dreams, they're coming right back
I got a place we can end this night at
I'll tell you it's over, needed this closure
Burning out baby, super nova

Because baby I'm a dark star
