

The walls are closing in
I threw some roses in
A vase and they all died in California
I'm going nowhere fast
Let go of all my past
I think I'll leave it all in California

I can't bare to live without you
But I'll die if I stay

Sometimes I wanna fucking leave it all behind
Pretend you were never mine
And everything I know is all a lie
It's hard to let go
Sorry, but I'm leaving town
If I stay I think I'll drown
Hollywood is dragging me down
Sometimes I wanna fucking leave it all behind
You had my heart, but nevermind

The ride is over now
I left a sober house
I almost died in Ventura County
I'll beat the odds again
I leaving all my friends
I lost my smile out in LA County

I can't bare to live without you
But I'll die if I stay

Sometimes I wanna fucking leave it all behind
Pretend you were never mine
And everything I know is all a lie
It's hard to let go
Sorry, but I'm leaving town
If I stay I think I'll drown
Hollywood is dragging me down
Sometimes I wanna fucking leave it all behind
You had my heart, but nevermind

(Nevermind, nevermind)
(Nevermind, nevermind)
(Nevermind, nevermind)
You had my heart but nevermind
(Nevermind, nevermind)
(Nevermind, nevermind)
(Nevermind, nevermind)
(Nevermind, nevermind)

Sometimes I wanna fucking leave it all behind
Pretend you were never mine
And everything I know is all a lie
It's hard to let go
Sorry, but I'm leaving town
If I stay I think I'll drown
Hollywood is dragging me down
Sometimes I wanna fucking leave it all behind

You had my heart, but nevermind
