Sober

Jez Dior

There's an angel to my left, she's getting even now
Devil on my right, he saying drink me down
It's 100 proof I'm tryna keep it down

Round after round
Round after round
Round after round
Round after round
Round after round
Round after round

You got me off track like a fuckin' roller coaster
Ain't no turning back got me wishing I was sober
I'm tired of feeling this way now
For now I'm just riding this wave down

Wishin' I was sober, I was sober, I was sober
Wishin' I was sober, I was sober, I was sober
Got me wishin' I was sober, I was sober, I was sober
Wishin' I was sober, I was sober, I was sober

I woke up with my head banging like an 808
Don't remember what I did last night but I'm sure it wasn't great
I got a bottle in the bathroom, bottle on my nightstand, bottle in freezer
My car's in the driveway but I got no idea where my keys are

Brr brr, there's my phone, there's a call, just to tell me what I did wrong
Tried to fight the bouncer, might of yelled and probably fell on chicks & sh it & acted a fool all night long
I've been on automatic causing havoc mode, fall asleep & wake up manic mode
And I gotta stop but I can't so I have another drink just to not hit panic m ode

There's an angel to my left, she's getting even now
Devil on my right, he saying drink me down
It''s 100 proof I'm tryna keep it down

Round after round
Round after round
Round after round
Round after round
Round after round
Round after round

You got me off track like a fuckin roller coaster
Ain't no turning back got me wishing I was sober
I'm tired of feeling this way now
For now I'm just riding this wave down

Wishin' I was sober, I was sober, I was sober
Wishin' I was sober, I was sober, I was sober
Got me wishin' I was sober, I was sober, I was sober
Wishin' I was sober, I was sober, I was sober

Got the spins told my girl grab a bin cause I gotta lay on the ground
Took shots like I'm Jeremy Lin, the way I sinned I'm probably going down
Hit the meeting just to get a coin so my P.O. don't catch me out

I got a headache man shut up you don't really wanna test me now

I pulled a no no up at Soho, I don't even have a membership
Me & a slender bitch, got intimate on the couch & shit & everybody got sensi tive
Like ain't you seen a movie where the booty out in public or am I on some ra pper shit?
Sorry were all just tryna eat, and I'm a different breed, but I'm not allowe d back again

There's an angel to my left, she's getting even now
Devil on my right, he saying drink me down
It''s 100 proof I'm tryna keep it down

Round after round
Round after round
Round after round
Round after round
Round after round
Round after round

You got me off track like a fuckin' roller coaster
Ain't no turning back got me wishing I was sober
I'm tired of feeling this way now
For now I'm just riding this wave down

Wishin' I was sober, I was sober, I was sober
Wishin' I was sober, I was sober, I was sober
Got me wishin' I was sober, I was sober, I was sober
Wishin' I was sober, I was sober, I was sober
