

2 Seconds

Jhené Aiko

Okay you back to talking that shit again
Question me about where I been
I don't even know why you here
You ain't even 'po'ed be here
I put it all the line
I be loving you every night
You the one I come home to right, right, right

Man I wish I had some weed up in my system
Cause I'm bout two seconds away from just flippin' out
How could you say that I did it when I didn't Think it's 'bout time that we end this now

I don't need your trust
I don't need this shit, yeah
I have had enough
I think you should just
Run away
Get away, find a new love
Run away

Cry me an ocean, build you a boat then sail away
If this is so difficult I cannot make you stay
I had been hoping you would be more than just a phase
You don't believe me, just leave, ain't nothing more to say
