

Down Again

Jhené Aiko

Okay

I'ma get the bag, I'ma get the bag
I'ma get the money while they mad, you gon' make me laugh
I'ma pull the duffle out with cash, fill it up with gas
I don't really think about your past when I puff and pass
Baby, this will knock you on your ass, make you do a dance
Make a chick forget about her man, make you understand
Help you reconsider all your plans, hope you never land
In the sky and we never comin' down again

Never comin' down again, down again
Never comin' down again, never doubt again
Never comin' down again, down again
In the sky and we never comin' down again

I'm so elevated
Thank god that we made it
Manifested every dream and entered all my prayers
Every day, I, stay high
Say hi to my haters on my way up (Hi)
Ain't no way that you could ever get me down (Get me down)
We ain't the same, I'm movin' different now (Different now)
I'm in the midst of an ascension now (Ascension now)
Lifted and I'm driftin' on a cloud

Never comin' down again, down again
Never comin' down again, never doubt again
Never comin' down again, down again
In the sky and we never comin' down again

Were you cold? What you drinkin'? What you said? (Yeah, yup)
We could roll up from the beaches to Japan (Yeah, yup)
I'm Khalifa
Nice to meet you, I'm Jhené (Yeah, yup)
You really poppin', I ain't with you for the fame
Were you cold? What you drinkin'? What you said? (Ah)
We could roll up from the beaches to Japan (Ah)
I'm Khalifa
Nice to meet you, I'm Jhené (Yeah)
You really poppin', I ain't with you for the fame

Never comin' down again, down again
Never comin' down again, never doubt again
Never comin' down again, down again
In the sky and we never comin' down again

Oh, woah
(Yeah, yup)
Oh, woah
In the sky and we never comin' down again
