Jhené Aiko

Light inside of me guiding me finally
I can see you
Light inside of me guiding me finally
I can leave you
Well I guess that is just what I get
'Cause I said what I said and Then you did what you did and you meant it
You always bring out the best in me
I can't thank you enough
I thought that's why God's blessing me
'Cause I still show you patience and grace
When you have given up
And it's totally because

I got a light inside of me
I got a light that's guiding me
I got a lot of God in me
And I can stand alone
I got a light inside of me
I got a light that's guiding me
And I decided finally
To leave your ass alone

I tell you all of my trauma
You say I am too much drama
Somehow I'm always the problem
You run away like it is just nothing
It's so hard for you
I'm too much
And you're not enough for you
It's nobody's fault, nobody lost
Just had a lot to learn
You were the match that lit up my path
To show me what bridge to burn

Light inside of me guiding me finally
I can see you
Light inside of me guiding me finally
I can leave you
Well I guess that is just what I get
'Cause never said what I did and
Then you said what you said and you meant it
You always bring out the best in me
I can't thank you enough
I bet that's why God's blessing me
Showed me such amazing love
And it's totally because because

I got a light inside of me (Inside)
I got a light that's guiding me (I got)
I got a lot of God in me
And I can stand alone
I got a light that's guiding me
I realize with God with me
I'll never be alone

Where we'll go, I don't know

This is a different love
This is a destined love
Think it's time that I say goodbye
Bye to you
Hello to my true love
It's over
