I don't need no other guy
Ever since you caught my eye
Oh you're the only one I see
The only one that's for me, my baby
And it would really be a shame
If you are just running game on me
Oh, baby please, baby please tell me it ain't so, oh no

I got a strange feeling
That maybe I am dealing with a smooth player
Ooh, I'm praying that you are who you are saying
Hope you are who you are saying
