JID

Uh-uh, yuh

Look

Paradise, Paradise

Escapades, shit

Look, uh

I'm just an old-ass, young nigga

A smart-ass, dumb nigga

A brand new nigga, but I still know where I'm from

I just been bangin' my drum

Bangin' your chick 'til she cum

And I go, and she come again, but I'm on the run

I'm just an insane, sane nigga

An untamed, tamed nigga

My membrane tainted, my pen pad painted with pain

Point-blank range, aim at your brain, bang! I'm angry

Drinkin' Jamy, I'm just like you but we ain't the same

Twenty-something, Kurt Cobain inside the game

Swerve a change inside your lane

Heard them people want me dead

So get in line and file your claim

State your gang and state your name

We exchanging hate for hate

You take a shot, I take a shot, my.38 like 8 for 8

So what's the play-by-play?

'Cause day-by-day we set the pace

Feel like Tay, we do the race, but, no, this ain't a game

So make my days, so make my days

So make my days, so make my day

Nigga, you faded, run my fade

Nigga, you crazy, gun my waist

Look at you wasted, stay in your place

Fuck all the fakin', we makin' the shake

I'm from the A, so we bakin' and takin' a nigga cake

Play state, milk shake, red drink, I ain't sayin' it

Just to be sayin' it, comin' back for what they taken for granted

And for what the people took from granddaddy

Kinda shocking, because damn it was steady

Wait, wait

Throw your hands in the air and just wave

Wave your guns in the air, brush the waves in your fade, wait

Wave at a pretty lady

Wait, wait

Throw your hands in the air and just wave

Wave your guns in the air, brush the waves in your fade, wait
