Broken Down Love Affair

Jigsaw

When he walks through the door
You won't see him anymore
When he walks through the door
You won't see him anymore

Because you're heading for a broken down love affair
You've booked yourself a ticket to a place nowhere
You're heading for a broken down love affair
When he walks through the door
You won't see him anymore

So you think you've found a boy who really loves you (I love you)
You'll do anything in the world that he wants you to do
But a broken heart's the only thing he'll give you
For he'll take what he wants, girl
When he walks through the door, girl
You poor little fool, you won't see him anymore

Because you're heading for a broken down love affair
You've booked yourself a ticket to a place nowhere
(Yeah, yeah, you're broken down, girl)
You're heading for a broken down love affair
When he walks through the door
You won't see him anymore

You're heading for a broken down love affair
(Yeah, yeah, you're broken down, girl)
Only you'll be the loser
You'll always find another fool to love

Your once starry eyes of love are now filled with tears (Don't cry)
And there's nothing in the world
Can cure all your fears
Every boy that comes along you'll search much deeper
And you'll want to fall in love, girl
But your heart won't set you free, girl
You'll always recall (Just remember)
How it turned out to be

Because you're heading for a broken down love affair
(Yeah, yeah, you're broken down, girl)
You've booked yourself a ticket to a place nowhere
(Yeah, yeah, you're broken down)
You're heading for a broken down love affair
(Yeah, yeah, you're broken down, girl)
When he walks through the door, you won't see him anymore

You're heading for a broken down love affair
(Yeah, yeah, you're broken down, girl)
Only you'll be the loser
(Well, don't be a loser)
You'll always find another fool

Because you're heading for a broken down love affair
(Yeah, yeah, you're broken down, girl)
(You see, he's breaking your little heart)
You've booked yourself a ticket to a place nowhere

(Yeah, yeah, you're broken down)
You're heading for a broken down love affair
(Yeah, yeah, you're broken down, girl)
(I know you want to fall in love)
You've booked yourself a ticket to a place nowhere
(But you just can't refuse)
(Yeah, yeah, you're broken down)

(Don't be a loser)
You're heading for a broken down love affair
(Yeah, yeah, you're broken down, girl)
(Just try, try again)
You've booked yourself a ticket to a place nowhere
(Yeah, yeah, you're broken down)
You're heading for a broken down love affair
