

Lullaby

Jill Barber

If I could sing a lullaby
A lullaby just for you
One that would chase away
All the cares of the day
And make your dreams come true
Just a simple melody
A melody soft and sweet
As the light fades away
At the close of day
And a hush falls over the street
Through and over the window
And high above the trees
Over the mountain side
Floating on the breeze
An old familiar lullaby
A lullaby meant to be
Sung today
In the very way
That it was sung to me
