

To The Last

Jill Barber

Things can change in a moment
Life can happen so fast
And from the first moment I knew
I would love you to the last

All my life I've been leading
Down a single track
Since the day you came in my way
And I'm never going back

Lonely hearts have a way of
Beating just as if to say
Things can change in a moment
Life can happen so fast

Lonely hearts have a way of
Beating just as if to say
Things can change in a moment
Life can happen so fast

I would love you to the last
