

A Woman Can Change Her Mind

Jill Johnson

I opened up the door
Thinking you'd walk right in
You've been begging so good
You finally got under my skin
You got a little cool
The moment you knew you had me
Isn't it a shame
You're messing with the flame
With your crazy little game
Of wait and see

Oh oh oh oh,
Yeah go ahead take your sweet time
That's fine
Oh oh oh oh
In case you haven't heard
A woman can change her mind

You gave me just enough
Of that little taste of love
And you hooked me
You wanted me to fall
Now you could have it all
And we should be

Everything you said
Got stirrin' in my head and my heart
I told you how I feel
But baby here's the deal
You might be pushing it
A little too far

Oh oh oh oh,
Yeah go ahead take your sweet time
That's fine
Oh oh oh oh
In case you haven't heard
A woman can change her mind
Yeah go ahead take your sweet time
That's fine
Oh oh oh oh
In case you haven't heard
A woman can change her mind

Don't you know how a woman can be
Changes like the weather it's that easy

Oh oh oh oh,
Yeah go ahead take your sweet time
That's fine
Oh oh oh oh
In case you haven't heard

Oh oh oh oh,
Yeah go ahead take your sweet time
That's fine

Oh oh oh oh
In case you haven't heard
