

Where Do I Begin

Jill Sobule

[Chorus]

Where do I begin
Where do I begin
To clean up this mess I made
Where do I begin

What corner of the room
I better pick up soon
Before I can't find myself
Where do I begin

[Verse 1]

'Cause over there is the ashes of the bridges that I burned
And over there is the stack of the same lesson learned
And over there is my lover underneath the dying fern
Where do I begin

[Chorus]

Where do I begin
Where do I begin
To clean up this mess I made
Where do I begin

What corner of the room
I better pick up soon
Before I can't find myself
Where do I begin

[Verse 2]

'Cause over there is the guitar with the broken string
And over there is the cat that I forgot to feed
And over there is the memories of a beautiful broken dream

Where do I begin
Where do I begin
Where do I begin
Where do I begin

[Chorus]

Where do I begin
Where do I begin
To clean up this mess I made
Where do I begin

What corner of the room
I better pick up soon
Before I can't find myself
Where do I begin

[Verse 3]

'Cause over there is the stack of the unpaid bills
And over there is the couch with the unexplained spill
And over here is the lonely heart that can't be filled
Where do I begin
Where do I begin
