

Forgive Her

Jillette Johnson

Forgive her for she doesn't really know what she does, what she did to you darling

Forgive her for she doesn't really know where she goes, where she is in the morning

Forgive her she becomes a little kid

You never should have been treated that way

It's not ok, it's not ok

But you'll forgive her anyway

It's not ok, but you'll forgive her anyway

All you need is time more time to find compassion

Draw another line, draw a line in the sand for protection

Forgive her she becomes a little kid

You never should have been treated that way

It's not ok, it's not ok

But you'll forgive her anyway

It's not ok, but you'll forgive her anyway

Cause you hate the alternative

And that's not the way you want to live

It's not ok, it's not ok

But you'll forgive her anyway

It's not ok, but you'll forgive her anyway forever

You'll forgive her anyway
