

Throw Out Your Mirror

Jillette Johnson

There are no mirrors on the wall so instead
I looked into the eyes of my friend
I saw myself inside what they could see
I couldn't believe it was me
I was pretty and tall [?]
Full of potential [?]
Everything I ever wanted to be
I couldn't believe it was me
That beautiful lady

Throw out your mirror and call up your friend
You're braver than you ever knew
You'll see it clearer than you ever did
You'll see yourself the way they see you
And all of your dreams will come true
All of your dreams will come true

It's hard to remember sometimes
That it's all in your mind
And the world is still spinning around
Keep your feet on the ground
And take a walk outside
Get in the car and drive
Roll down the window and shake out your hair
'Cause the world don't care
What you're doing in there

Throw out your mirror and call up your friend
You're braver than you ever knew
You'll see it clearer than you ever did
You'll see yourself the way they see you
And all of your dreams will come true
All of your dreams will come true
All of your dreams will come true
And all of your dreams
