

Gemini

Jillian Rossi

Red is the way I'm feeling lately
Kind of wanna tear up your white white wedding
Cause if we're showing our colors now
Might as well rip apart the vows
Sign of the times, you're being shady

You've always had two faces
But I never had to face it
Should've known better
Should've known that

You're such a Gemini
Had no problem leaving me behind
Everyday your a different side
Never thought I would demonize you but
You're such a Gemini
I'm burning up while you're cold as ice

Pretty in pictures, cruel on the inside
Batting your eyes through little white lies
Crying about insecurities
But talking shit from behind a screen
Never thought you'd do it me
Do it to me

You've always had two faces
But I never had to face it
Should've known better
Should've known that

You're such a Gemini
Had no problem leaving me behind
Everyday your a different side
Never thought I would demonize you but
You're such a Gemini
I'm burning up while you're cold as ice

Oh oh gemini gemini
Oh oh Gemini

You're such a Gemini
Had no problem leaving me behind
Everyday your a different side
Never thought I would demonize you but
You're such a Gemini
A part of you's a little dead inside

Oh oh Gemini Gemini
Oh oh Gemini Gemini
Oh oh Gemini Gemini
Oh oh Gemini
