

Like A Boy

Jillian Rossi

No going out to dinner
Barely sleeping over, just late nights
And leave in the morning
I really picked a winner
Didn't see it coming
I guess that I thought

You were a grown ass man
But you hurt me like a boy would
Way too immature
Treated my heart like a toy
Oh you were 6 feet tall
But you acted like a child
I know it's been a while, but oh

I realize I'm the same age
That you were
When you couldn't give me
What I deserved
Oh the playing games
Manipulating
Did things I never could
Oh you
You hurt me like a boy would
You hurt me like a boy

We're even not together
Cause together means
You show love, emotions
But you never showed em'
And now that I've got it better
It's never been more clear
That you'll never grow up

Oh You were a grown ass man
But you hurt me like a boy would
Way too immature
Treated my heart like a toy
Oh you were 6 feet tall
But you acted like a child
I know it's been a while, but oh

I realize I'm the same age
That you were
When you couldn't give me
What I deserved
Oh the playing games
Manipulating
Did things I never could
Oh you

Ooh
You hurt me like a boy, oh
Ooh, ooh ah

You hurt me like a boy
Ooh ah, no

I realize I'm the same age
That you were
What I deserved
Manipulating
Did things I never could
Oh you
