

Every Shade Of You

Jim Brickman

Oh oh, oh oh
Mmmmm, mmmmm, mmmmm
Oh oh, oh oh
I'd paint you if I could
But I don't draw so good
But I'd sure like to try

I'd start with tangerine
Throw in yellow, blue, and green
Move to fiery red
You're in my head
You're so hard to describe

Every shade of you makes me love you more
You're every color that I've never seen before
Down to earth
Wild at heart
Just makes you who you are
Every shade of you makes me love you more
Oh oh, oh oh
Makes me love you more
Oh oh, oh oh
Mmmmmmmmm

When the bluest sky turns grey
You're my raincoat in the rain
And you bring round the sun
Ohhhh-oooh
I was strictly black and white
Til you colored my life
With your own designs outside the lines
And that's what makes it fun

Every shade of you makes me love you more
You're every color that I've never seen before
Down to earth
Wild at heart
Just makes you who you are
Every shade of you makes me love you more
Oh oh, oh oh
Makes me love you more
Oh oh, oh oh

All this time I still keep finding
New reasons to fall in love with you
Fall in love, fall in love with you

You're down to earth
Wild at heart
Just makes you who you are

Every shade of you makes me love you more
You're every color that I've never seen before
Down to earth
Just makes you who you are

Oh oh, oh oh
Makes me love you more
Every shade of you
