

Everyday Angels

Jim Cuddy

I'm wondering
Stop wondering why
Could this be true
Yes it is
I'm waking up
We've been waiting for years
It's such a beautiful sight

Well I can't see
Just open your eyes
Maybe I'm scared
Don't you be
There's so much
It's a lot to take in
I don't know where to begin

All the stars above us
Are shining on down
Everyday angels
They keep flying all around

Give me one more day
No you've had enough time
But I could fall
Yes it's true
You know what I need
A little help from your friends
Yes I believe that will do
A little help from your friends

There's the sunrise
Happens every day
I don't recall
It passed you by
I missed so much
You've been hiding away
Well look at that fire in the sky

All the stars above us
Are shining on down
Everyday angels
And they lift us off the ground

I'm wondering
Stop wondering why
Could this be true
You know it is
I'm waking up
Oh well it's about time
It's such a beautiful sight
Oh such a beautiful sight
It's such a beautiful sight
Oh I'm waking up
