

Glorious Day

Jim Cuddy

Woke up this morning with a pounding in my head
Thought of maybe getting up but I laid there instead
Why I do this heaven knows
Waking up again in all my clothes
Ooh yeah

Put myself together and I went to scrub my face
Opened up the paper but there's a war on every page
In this run-you-down, selfish land
How you gonna find an honest man
Ooh yeah

Outside my door the sun is shining bright
I see people walking everywhere showering with light
I can feel my blues fade away
Cause with so much beauty everywhere
You can't hide from this glorious day

Call up my friend come and keep me a company
She said I got to work but I will be there presently
So I sat and patiently
Counted up the birds in all the trees
Ooh yeah

Outside my door the sun is shining bright
I see people walking everywhere showering with light
I can feel my blues fade away
Cause with so much beauty everywhere
You can't hide from this glorious day

Outside my door the sun is shining bright
I see people walking everywhere showering with light
I can feel my blues fade away
Cause with so much beauty everywhere
You can't hide from this glorious day
