

What Is so Wrong

Jim Cuddy

Whatever became of the one that we knew
When did heartless raven ever become you
Pictures on my mantle they're gonna go too

Cause you never even noticed the world gone by
Could be gone in the blink of an eye
What is so wrong, what is so wrong

You gotta admit that it's funny the mess that we made
Maybe we could have fixed it, but there was nothing to save
I could walk right down there, but I'm not that brave

No, you never even noticed the world gone by
Could be gone in the blink of an eye
What is so wrong, what is so wrong
Something turned me away that's true
Could be something about me or you
What is so wrong, what is so wrong

There's a place on the corner where we used to go
You could drink with the poets and then sleep through the show
Everybody's gone now so you can never go home

No, you never even noticed the world gone by
Could be gone in the blink of an eye
What is so wrong, what is so wrong
Something turned me away that's true
Could be something about me or you
What is so wrong, what is so wrong
You never even noticed the world
Never noticed the world
What is so wrong, what is so wrong
Could be something about me
Could be something about you
What is so wrong, what is so wrong
